WOMEN PLEAD DRY LAW STAND UNCHANGED

100 PROTESTS FROM NEARLY EVERY STATE

ADDRESSED TO SENATE PROHIBITION COMMITTEE

40 WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNIONS HEARD FROM

BY PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, April 8.—A hundred protests from virtually every state signed by women's welfare organizations, church workers and business houses were presented to the senate prohibition committee today, pleading that the prohibition law be permitted to stand as it is.

Those from 40 Women's Christian Temperance Unions were framed in the same words as the Ann Arbor, Mich., Post:

"We protest against any modification of the Volstead code."

Many of the petitions were telegraphed.

Five Methodist churches in Alabama filled out a formal protest which was mimeographed with blank spaces left only for the name of the church and the number of the congregation.

Five hundred citizens of Indiana signed a paragraph plea for retention of the present law. They did not identify themselves.

Figures Purport to Show Chicago Status

Washington, April 8.—Figures purporting to show the situation in Chicago with regard to prohibition matters were offered the senate committee studying Volstead act modification today by Anton J. Cermak, president of the Cook county board of commissioners.

There were 560 alcoholic patients in Cook county hospital in 1918 and in 1925 there were 2,266, an increase of 304 per cent; the general ward showed an increase from 19 alcoholic patients in 1918 to 1,130 alcoholic patients in 1925, an increase of 558 per cent, he said.

In psychopathic ward, insane alcoholic cases increased from 421 in 1917 to 1,136 in 1925, 179 per cent, he added.

"We are now building a new and larger jail," he continued, "our appropriations for poverty and pauperism have increased from $268,988 in 1919, to $329,212.98 in the county agent's department alone."

Cermak said the Chicago delegation led by Brennan and himself had attempted to obtain statistics from the prohibition unit in Chicago regarding the number of stills and violations reported but that the prohibition unit denied them the information.

BUCKNER FAVORS THE MODIFICATION OF DRY ACT

Washington, April 8.—Modification of the Volstead act would be a good thing for prohibition enforcement, District Attorney Emory R. Buckner of New York told the senate prohibition investigating committee today.

Buckner was called just after testimony from a Chicago delegation of wets had been introduced into the minutes.

Buckner argued that co-operation between states and the federal government was necessary and that he believed that if congress would permit his state to define the alcoholic contents of beverages the state would help enforce the law.

"It would be a perfectly rational step in prohibition enforcement to modify the Volstead law, to dangle such a bait before the states to get their co-operation," he said.

"If the one half of one per cent provision of the Volstead act was eliminated and the state permitted to define what is an intoxicating beverage, I believe you would develop the necessary partnership between the federal government and the state."

Unless this is done, Buckner said, present court facilities in New York state alone would have to be increased $75,000,000 a year by adding 150 courts additional to handle prohibition cases.

Chairman Means, dry, recalled District Attorney Emory Buckner, of New York, and informed him that his statement yesterday that 60,000,000 gallons of denatured alcohol was diverted yearly for bootleg purposes was astounding.

Buckner said that government figures showed that 88,000,000 gallons

House Practically Kills Reapportionment Bill

WHEN TROUBLE COMES, USUALLY COMES IN HEAPS

Milwaukee, April 8.—(UP)—Police of the Twin Cities today were asked to make a thorough search for Edward G. Berch, 25, missing cashier of the Phoenix Leather company.

Berch is wanted on a warrant charging embezzlement of $2,000. It is also indicated that Berch will have to do a great deal of explaining in connection with the allegation he has two wives. It was intimated that charges of bigamy might also be preferred against him.

BRENNAN FLAYS THE VOLSTEAD ACT

ILLINOIS MAN SAYS PROHIBITION LAW IS A NATIONAL SCANDAL

CLAIMS THAT IT HAS INCREASED
DRUNKENNESS, IMMORALITY, MURDER, ETC.

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 8.—The prohibition law is a national scandal and it has increased drunkenness, immorality, disrespect, corruption, murder, insanity, blindness and crime in general, George E. Brennan, democratic political leader of Chicago, told the senate prohibition investigation committee today.

"The sensible, the honest thing to do is to modify it or repeal this unenforceable statute and restore to the states their right in this field of purely domestic legislation," he said.

Brennan was one of the leaders in the 1924 Klan fight before the democratic national convention and now a candidate for the democratic senatorial nomination in his state. He was the first witness of the opening of the fourth day of the senatorial inquiry to ascertain facts in prohibition.

The dries, he said, had promised there would be an end to drunkenness, crime and poverty when the law was enacted.

"But there is more drunkenness than before the banning of intoxicants," he said.

"Crime wave after crime wave, in one city after another throughout the nation. What of the thousands who have been killed, blinded or crazed by various concoctions that are being passed out surreptitiously under counterfeit labels as bonded liquor or good stuff?"

"All human experiences prove the futility of attempting to regulate morals by statute."

of denatured alcohol was manufactured for all purposes during the year ending June 30, 1925. Legitimate use of the alcohol before "the art of mixing alcohol to make liquor" became so proficient, was 21,000,000 gallons, he said. His statisticians deduced that the legitimate increase would lop off 7,000,000 gallons and leave 60,000,000 that found its way to the drinking public.

Buckner said one of the unfortunate things of prohibition was that violators were permitted to plead guilty and pay a small fine. Violators should be sent to jail, he urged. He said he received almost 3,000 pleas of guilty and collected $265,000 in fines in his district last year.

Buckner amplified his proposition for modification upon further questioning by the committee. He said he thought congress might set a maximum figure for alcoholic content, but would offer no suggested figure.

Then, he said, the states could permit beer and light wines if they wished.

"Any alcoholic content they would fix would automatically be the federal law in that state," he said. "Of course, that would make different prohibition laws in different states, but we have that now."

Buckner's examination was ended at noon and the committee adjourned until tomorrow when it will hear American Federation of Labor leaders.

Chairman Means was taken to Walter Reed hospital, when he suddenly became ill during the hearing.

DEBS PICTURES HIMSELF AS MAN WITHOUT COUNTRY

ONCE FIERY LEADER IN SOCIALIST CAUSE RESTING IN BERMUDA

ADVANCING AGE DIMMING HIS EYES, SLENDER FORM WEAKENING

By MAX BUCKINGHAM
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, April 8.—Eugene V. Debs pictures himself in his retiring years as "a man without a country," a 20th century Philip Nolan, it was revealed today in a letter written to a friend in Chicago.

The once fiery leader of the socialist party, many times socialist candidate for president of the United States, is resting in Bermuda. Advancing age has rapidly dimmed his eyes; his slender form is weakening; the voice that rang to his 'comrades' in eloquent appeals for socialist principles, is cracking. Now in solitude and virtual retirement on a tropical island in the Atlantic, with only his wife, Katherine, as companion, he looks back at the land of his nativity, the scene of his many conflicts, and fears that henceforth he may be forced to view the United States "from afar through the wistful eyes of an undesirable alien."

The letter was addressed to "Comrade George H. Kirkpatrick," executive secretary of the socialist party. It relates his difference with American and British authorities since leaving the United States. There is not the least suggestion in the letter that Debs is retracting even the slightest from his socialist doctrine or would disavow the policies for which he served penitentiary sentences.

Rather it is a note of sadness that the once fiery Debs strikes in this epistle. Not only is he confronted with advancing age and the need for quiet hours, but his wife also is ill, and it was necessary to take her to Bermuda to regain her strength.

After telling of being questioned at length by the British immigration officials at Bermuda, Debs writes:

"They then opened a ponderous volume and read to me the law concerning the exclusion of undesirable immigrants and I certainly could be excluded without straining its drastic provisions."

"The immigration inspector then served notice on me that if I attempted to make any speech or engage in any propaganda, they would have to deport me from the island, to all of which I listened with smiling indulgence, if not approval."

"Now finally it is not at all certain that I shall be permitted to re-enter the land of my birth. I know that I am kept under constant surveillance and I am sure that strenuous efforts will be secretly made to bar my entry to the United States. This may not come to pass, but I am prepared for it, and I shall not be surprised if I am forced to view the Statue of Liberty by Bartholdi (who once called me a 'noble American') in New York harbor, from afar through the wistful eyes of an undesirable alien."

"How strange it seems that my humble speeches and my feeble efforts and activities in the cause of the people should have excited the fear, wrath and vengeance, or, shall I say, inspired the anxiety, vigilance and solicitude of the two most powerful and professedly the most Christian, humane, enlightened and progressive governments in the world!"

Kirkpatrick made the letter public without making any comment of his own.

HEAVY STORM SWEEPS CENTRAL EAST COAST

Fort Pierce, Fla., April 8.—(UP)—Overturning automobiles, unroofing houses and leaving a trail of property destruction in its wake, a heavy storm swept over the central east coast today.

The storm centered in and around Fort Pierce, crippling telegraph and telephone lines and throwing the city in darkness for several hours.

No casualties have been reported.

TWO CHILDREN PERISH IN FARM HOUSE FIRE

Winnipeg, Man., April 8.—(UP)—Two children perished in a fire which destroyed the home of George Magliore, a farmer living near Letellier, 50 miles south of Winnipeg, early this morning.

The fire started when Magliore attempted to hurry the kitchen fire with coal oil. His wife, eight children, a Mrs. George Barnabe and two children were asleep at the time but Magliore succeeded in rescuing all but two of them. He was forcibly prevented by his wife from making further trips into the flaming building, when a check of the children showed two missing. Magliore had his clothing burned off his body in his journeys through the flames. The children who perished were a boy aged five and a baby girl nine months.

MAYOR LEACH OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR GOVERNOR

MAKES VIGOROUS ATTACK ON PRESENT STATE ADMINISTRATION

GIVES AN OUTLINE OF THE POLICIES HE PROPOSES

Benson, Minn., April 8.—(UP)—Mayor George E. Leach of Minneapolis opened his campaign for the republican nomination for governor here last night with a vigorous attack on the present state administration and an outline of the policies he proposes.

One of the largest crowds ever to hear a political address here crowded the courthouse to greet Leach. The meeting was sponsored by the Swift county "Leach for Governor" club.

The gubernatorial aspirant advocated abolition of the "Big Three." As a substitute he proposed a director of the budget as in the federal system. Farm relief and economy in state government were promised.

Leach criticized Governor Theodore Christenson for his support of the state government reorganization scheme, for vetoing the deficiency appropriation bill passed by the last legislature and for alleged encroachment upon the rights of the legislative department.

Importance of the educational problem was stressed. The candidate said children in less populated localities should have the same advantage as those in cities. Government assistance for the farmer was urged.

Farmers are as much entitled to protective legislation as bankers, railroad owners and commercial interests, he said. He pledged support to any efforts at solution of the farm problem.

Summing up his keynote speech, Leach said the great concerns of state government are:

Advancement of education that our sons and daughters may attain the noblest standards of manhood and womanhood.

Exploitation of the opportunities of soil and climate to the end that Minnesota may be the garden of the nation.

Enrichment of labor in fellowship with modern industry.

A sane policy of administration and legislation.

HOLSTEIN SALES AVERAGE WELL

JAPANESE BUYERS PURCHASE PRINCE ORMSBY SEGIS FAYNE

Fond Du Lac, Wis., April 8.—(UP)—As the Holstein sale, which has been conducted here for the past few days, moved to West Salem, LaCrosse county, it developed that the sales for the two days was $38,000, an average of $450.

The final day of the sale saw Prince Ormsby Segis Fayne, 10 months old bull, go to Japanese buyers for $1,500 and Avon Echo Viola, milking 90 pounds daily, was purchased by E. P. Johnson, Elgin, Ill., for $1,650.

FASCIST TROOPS AND MILITIA ARE MOBILIZED

IN PREPARATION FOR ANY EVENTUALITIES FOLLOWING
ATTACK ON PREMIER

STRICT TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE CENSORSHIP HAS BEEN IMPOSED

Paris, April 8.—(UP)—A dispatch to the "Quotidien" from the Italian frontier says that fascist militia and troops are mobilized throughout Italy today in preparation for any eventualities resulting from yesterday's attack on Premier Mussolini. Strict telegraph and telephone censorship has been imposed, the message says.

MUSSOLINI SAILS FOR TRIPOLI TODAY

Rome, April 8.—Premier Mussolini whose escape from death at the hands of a demented woman yesterday, threw all Italy into a frenzy of celebration, sailed today for Tripoli.

The superficial wound inflicted in the cartilage of the premier's nose seemed not to discommode him. Smiling above heaps of congratulatory messages from all over the world, Mussolini completed preparations for the departure.

The utmost precautions were taken to prevent public disorders during the duke's absence.

Mussolini sailed aboard the dreadnaught Cavour, escorted by other warships.

The African journey is hailed by fascists as inaugurating a new era of Italian colonial and sea power. Sailing as he did from Fiumicino, at the mouth of the storied Tiber, Mussolini's departure was reminiscent of the Caesars.

Enormous crowds gathered in front of the Chigi Palace today to reaffirm their loyalty to the duke and to express with cheers their thanksgiving that he escaped death.

Suddenly appearing on a balcony above the crowd, Mussolini raised his hand in the fascist salute, the attitude which he had assumed a moment before the Hon. Violet Gibson, daughter of the late Lord Ashburne, discharged a revolver in his face.

"I want you to hear my voice," roared Mussolini. "I want to show you that the tone has not suffered the slightest change. I can assure you that my heart has not accelerated its beating. Your cheers and your presence in this square mean that the fascist regime is solid in your hearts, as before. I want no violence committed, but desire you to disband peacefully."

Miss Gibson is believed to have planned to assassinate Mussolini a week ago Sunday when he addressed a fascist mass meeting. A militia officer then reported that he had seen an elderly woman acting suspiciously.

Rome, April 8.—Premier Mussolini departed for Tripoli today, his martial spirit uncurbed by the menace of death yesterday in the person of an insane would-be assassin.

Mussolini's last speech before departing aboard the dreadnaught Cavour to survey the new Roman empire overseas, was of war and the growth of Italian prestige. In a ceremony aboard the Cavour, one of Italy's greatest engines of death, Mussolini introduced the newly installed fascist party directory to the provincial party secretaries.

"I deliberately desired that this ceremony should occur aboard a warship," the wounded premier told his subordinates.

"First, because I want you to pay homage to our glorious navy, upon which the hopes of our future are founded."

"Second, I want you to familiarize yourselves with these instruments of war."

"Third, because I desired you, on returning to your provincial districts, to help in creating a marine sentiment among the population."

"We are a Mediterranean people and our future and our past lies upon the sea."

Two discs of plaster on the premier's nose and slight inflammation of the eyes and lips from the smoke puffed into his face by the discharge of the Hon. Violet Gibson's revolver yesterday, were the only marks of the experience through which Mussolini had passed.

QUOTATIONS ARE BAR TO ANY ORIGINALITY

St. Paul, April 8.—(UP)—"The life that lives on quotations never has any originality," Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, New York, told Hamline University students and faculty at their mid-year meeting.

"We must learn the opinions of others, but we must also learn to think for ourselves," he said.

"If intemperance is a vicious habit as I believe it is, it cannot be cured by moderation. Moderation is one of God's greatest qualities and yet moderation has many counterfeits."

IMMENSITY OF HIGHWAY WORK IN MINNESOTA

REVEALED IN 5 YEAR REVIEW
GIVEN BY COMMISSIONER C.
M. BABCOCK

SURFACING MATERIAL WOULD BUILD PYRAMID AS HIGH
AS CHEOPS

St. Paul, April 8.—(UP)—A review of the last five years of highway construction in Minnesota by Commissioner Charles M. Babcock today revealed the immensity of completed projects.

Surfacing material placed on highways from 1921 to 1925 would build a pyramid as high as the great pyramids of Cheops, which is 482 feet high and would cover 5 1/2 acres, statisticians pointed out.

To transport these surfacing materials would require 3,228 trains of steel hopper cars extending a distance of 1,541 miles, or 195,680 cars with a capacity of 50 tons each.

The highway department has built 3,575 miles of grading, 3,238 miles of gravel surfacing and 575 miles of paving in addition to extensive bridge construction and replacement and maintenance operations over the entire 7,000 mile trunk highway system.

Nearly 10,000,000 tons of dry material has been dumped on the highways in surfacing operations. In the construction of 575 miles of paving it took 1,847,000 cubic yards of material or a quantity sufficient to erect a wall 472 miles long, 10 feet high and two feet thick. Such a wall would extend from St. Paul to Winnipeg.

The amount of earth and stone moved by the department during the last five years would total about 47,493,000 cubic yards. Through the removal of similar yardage the department could have constructed a canal 60 feet wide, 10 feet deep and 403 miles long, or from the Twin Cities to Chicago.

DIRIGIBLE NORGE DEPARTURE DELAYED

Rome, April 8.—(UP)—The departure of the dirigible Norge, which will carry the Amundsen-Ellsworth polar expedition, was delayed today because of strong local winds.

The crew, comprising 21 men, chafed at the delay.

The first leg of the journey to Spitzbergen, whence the flight across the pole is to be attempted, is to end in England.

ASSURED BY FIRST TEST VOTE TAKEN

VOTE CAME ON LEGALITY OF A MOTION BY REP.
BARBOUR

MAINTAINED CONGRESS SHOULD ENACT LAW AFTER EACH CENSUS

Washington, April 8.—(UP)—In the first test vote this session, the house today practically killed the present enactment of reapportionment legislation in accordance with the 1920 census.

The vote came on the legality of a motion by Representative Barbour, republican, California, to call up his reapportionment bill under the "highest constitutional privilege."

Barbour maintained that the constitution required congress to enact reapportionment legislation after each census.

HALF CENTURY OLD, MAY MARRY 15 YEAR OLD GIRL

New York, April 8.—(UP)—If Edward W. Browning wants to marry his latest Cinderella, 15 year old Frances Heenan, it is all right with the children's court.

Judge Franklin Hoyt said today he would have no jurisdiction over such a marriage although the bill was now pending in the legislature whereby marriages of children without permission of the courts would be forbidden.

Judge Hoyt made the statement when a hearing on the petition brought by the Children's society was adjourned until April 15 to permit Frances Heenan to recover from acid burns suffered mysteriously a fortnight ago.

LOS ANGELES, HUGE DIRIGIBLE, UNDERGOES TESTS

Washington, April 8.—(UP)—The Los Angeles, only huge rigid dirigible of the United States, has passed preliminary tests toward making a flight next week, the first since her sister ship, the Shenandoah, crashed down to destruction in Ohio last September.

"The shed test has been successfully passed," Captain George W. Steele, Lakehurst, N. J., air station chief, informed Secretary of the Navy Wilbur today, adding that the ship would be taken out and moored to her mast Monday in preparation for her first flight Monday or Tuesday.

Some of the gas cells had been replaced and others strengthened, officials said.

STOWAWAY FOR CHICAGO SPENT 2 DAYS IN YARDS

St. Paul, April 8.—(UP)—Enroute two days from Minneapolis to Chicago, Norman Cope, 18, reached here today on the first leg of his journey. Cope stowed away in a Soo Line box car which he thought would take him to Chicago. He was found in semi-conscious condition in the car that had been shuttled between the Twin Cities almost 48 hours.

Hospital attaches are attempting to explain to Cope that he is not in Chicago.

MALVY IS TO RETIRE FROM FRENCH CABINET

Paris, April 8.—(UP)—Minister of the Interior Louis Malvy, who has been conspicuous in the French-Spanish negotiations regarding peace terms with Abd El Krim's Riffians, has decided to retire from Premier Briand's cabinet where his presence has caused differences with the right members of the chamber.

TWO FILE FOR STATE OFFICE

St. Paul, April 8.—(UP)—Two men filed today for nomination as state officials. G. Halvorson, Thief River Falls, filed for state senator from the sixty-fifth district. S. H. McElhane, St. Charles, filed for nomination as judge of the third judicial district.

Pepys' Diary Unique

In all English literature there is nothing that so reflects society of the time in which it was written, between 1660 and 1690, as Pepys' Diary. It was inscribed in shorthand by Samuel Pepys and was not published until 1825. The years in which he wrote were gay and profligate times.

HONEYMOON FOLLOWS A HECTIC COURTSHIP

Minneapolis, April 8.—(UP)—Mr. and Mrs. August Bergman today started a honeymoon which will terminate at Bergman's farm at Foston, Minn., after a hectic courtship. A few days ago Bergman had Miss Anita Cummings and Leo Martin arrested on vagrancy charges. He said they were plotting to swindle him. Later he bailed Miss Cummings out and married her. Charges against her were dismissed when she became Mrs. Bergman. Martin was also released to bid the bride and groom farewell.

Salmon's Long Trip

The Canadian department of marine and fisheries has marked a considerable number of Atlantic salmon, by attaching silver tags to their dorsal fins, for the purpose of tracing the movements of these fish.

A salmon that was marked and liberated off Burns point, Port Maitland, Yarmouth county, Nova Scotia, on June 11 was killed in the Moisie river, Quebec, in the early part of July.

If this fish took the most direct route it traveled about 800 miles, but if it followed the larger indentation of the shoreline it traveled over 1,200 miles.

Pearl Fishers' Notion

For long ages it has been believed in the Orient that it is possible to "breed" pearls by keeping them in rice. There is no evidence to support this belief, but to this day the pearl-fishers of Borneo place every ninth pearl they find in a bottle of rice.

How WILL I Ever Get Them Clean?

That's a question that many women ask themselves every washday. It's a thought that never enters the mind of a Maytag owner.

The Maytag owner knows—she's proved that everything she puts into the Maytag's satin-smooth, heat-retaining, self-cleaning cast-aluminum tub will come out clean—without hand-rubbing—even collar and cuff edges—even grease-loaded work-clothes, dirt-grimed play-clothes.

Send for a Maytag—wash with it free—make it prove its greater speed and washability—its larger capacity. There is no obligation or expense. If it doesn't sell itself, don't keep it. Phone us Now.

For homes without electricity, the Maytag is available with its built-in gasoline motor.

9 Outstanding Maytag Features

- 1 Washes faster.
- 2 Washes cleaner.
- 3 Largest hourly capacity. Tub holds 21 gals.
- 4 Most compact washer made—takes floor space only 25 inches square.
- 5 Cast aluminum tub—can't warp, rot, swell, split or corrode.
- 6 Easily adjusted to your height.
- 7 Clothes can be put in or taken out with the washerrunning.
- 8 Tub cleans itself.
- 9 All metal wringer. Self adjusting. Instant tension release.

GROCERY STORE SAFE IS BLOWN

Amateur Cracksmen Believed to Have Entered Store of Swanson and Thon

SECURED $7 IN LOOT

Plate Glass Show Window Valued at $100 Smashed, And $50 Other Damage Done

Amateur cracksmen early this morning entered the store of Swanson and Thon, 105 A street, N. E., blew the door off the safe by means of glycerine, securing only seven dollars in loot, five dollars from the safe and two dollars in pennies from the till. While the burglary was very small the burglars did damage to the store of over $150.

In some unusual manner the plate glass show window was smashed. It is believed by the proprietors, Art Thon, and Oscar Swanson, that in blowing open the safe door, some object, possibly in the safe or in front of it was hurled through the window which is in front of the safe but about 20 feet away. The glass is valued at $100 and is covered by insurance.

The burglars entered the store through a window in the basement and made their escape through the back door. The five dollars stolen from the safe was money belonging to the local post of the American Legion, Mr. Thon having collected it from the sale of tickets for the play here on April 14 and 15.

The explosion which completely wrecked the front of the safe took place about 2:30 this morning, according to George Ebinger, 113 A street, N. E. and Cecil Hand, engineer at the power house, who reported hearing it at that time.

The burglary was first noticed when Oscar Swanson came to work this morning. The police who were immediately called, secured finger prints from the safe door. A piece of fuse, two inches in length was also found on the floor. It is believed that the burglars pried the combination off the safe door and inserted highly explosive glycerine in the hollow.

That the burglars were amateurs is based on the belief that experienced safe blowers would have been more careful in their method of blowing the safe. No groceries were taken.

Colleen Moore's Fashion Show in Her Latest Picture, "Irene," Expected to Influence Modes

Colleen Moore—and not Paris—is likely to influence fashions this season, according to advance reports from those who have seen the star's latest picture, "Irene."

In this film, which is based on the musical comedy triumph "Irene," Miss Moore and sixty Hollywood beauties stage a fashion show which is reported to be the last word in styles. The scene is heightened by the fact that it has been filmed in colors.

The gowns, according to information gained from the management of the New Park theatre, where the picture is to be shown this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, were designed by Cora MacGeachy, the master-creator of the gowns worn by the dazzling members of Flo Ziegfeld's "Follies."

TRULY COMEDY BOMBSHELL SOON

"Behind the Front," on Sunny Side of War, Under American Legion Auspices

2,000 TICKETS SOLD

500 Tickets Remaining Will be Quickly Sold by Committees

"Behind the Front," a comedy bombshell on the sunny side of the war, featuring Raymond Hatton, Wallace Beery, and Mary Brian in their greatest roles, comes to Brainerd Wednesday and Thursday, April 14 and 15, at the New Park theatre under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion.

Already 2,000 tickets have been sold and the 500 tickets remaining will be quickly sold. The local post have arranged to put on a stage skit in conjunction with the play which will be a big attraction. Rehearsals have been held nightly with the result that they are now prepared to step before the Brainerd public. Proceeds of the play will help to carry on local civic affairs for the improvement of city conditions in general.

A special school children's matinee will be given on April 14 at 4 p. m.

The Legion Auxiliary and a selling committee have been appointed to sell tickets. Tickets can also be obtained at Dunn's, Johnson's, Economy Drug Store, and O'Brien Mercantile store. Orchestra music will be rendered at each evening performance.

Speaking of Coins

Most Americans look upon the silver dollar as the most cumbersome coin ever minted. But it is put completely in the shade by some of the old Swedish pieces. In the museum at Falun, in Sweden, there is a copper coin dated 1644 which measures 25 inches by 13 and weighs over forty pounds.

FEATURE NATIVE TALENT

A UNIQUE feature of the program of the Biennial Convention of Women's clubs to be held in Atlantic City May 24 to June 5, is the bringing together six of America's leading women composers and the singing of numbers from another half dozen. Among those who will appear in person are Gena Branscombe, Fay Foster, Harriet Ware, Meta Schumann, Floy Bartlett, and Louise Ayres Garnett, announces Mrs. Marx Oberndorfer of Chicago, chairman of music for the General Federation.

Four American women have written outstanding operas that have been given production by prominent companies: Mrs. Archibald Freer, of Chicago, "The Jester," produced by the Chicago Opera Company; Mrs. Alfred Andrews, "Guido Ferranti," produced by the Chicago Opera Company; Clara Moore, San Francisco, "Narcissa," and Mrs. Celeste Hechsker, of New York, "The Rose of Destiny." Arias from these opera are to be sung by a tenor and soprano given to the Federation by Fortune Gallo of the San Carlos Opera Company.

Fay Foster, on International Relations Night, will bring a trio, herself and two men, to sing groups of folk songs of all nations, in costume, closing with her own great composition, "The Americans Come."

Marie Montana, an American girl who made a decided hit in Europe with her singing, and who took the name of her native state as her stage name, will be on the program, as will another American singer, Senta Erd. Edwin Swain, baritone, one of the big concert singers of New York, a Florida boy, whose early musical education was provided by the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs, will sing, and Mrs. Garabedian, a violinist, will play a group of her own arrangements of Indian folk songs. Oklahoma is also sending a group of juniors to sing on Indian Welfare day.

Music by Mrs. H. A. Beach will be presented as well as a posthumous suite by Susan Dyer, which will be played by Marion Rous and Benno Ocko, a young American violinist of New York who has been a sensation this season in the east.

In addition to these formal numbers there will be much group singing on the part of the delegates and a fine chorus contest participated in by choruses from various women's clubs all over the country; some twenty having entered already.

The children are not forgotten in all this preparation, for a national memory contest has been arranged for the children who will have won such a contest in their own home towns. These towns contests will be inaugurated in all localities during music week, May 2 to 8, with the finals and awarding of prizes to be held in Atlantic City.

LIFE AS IT IS

LIFE, as it is, is full of paradoxes. It is difficult to suit everybody and equally as hard sometimes to please one's self. As remarked by an exchange, did it ever occur to you that a man's life is full of crosses and temptations? He comes into the world without his consent and goes out against his will, and the trip in between is exceedingly rocky.

When he's little, the big girls kiss him.
When he's big, the little girls kiss him.
If he's poor, he's a bad manager.
If he's rich, he's dishonest.
If he needs credit, he can't get it.
If he's prosperous, everyone wants to do him a favor.
If he gives affection, he's a soft specimen.
If he cares for no one, he's cold blooded.
If he dies young, there was a great future for him.
If he lives to an old age, he missed his calling.
If you save money you are a grouch.
If you spend it you are a loafer.
If you get it you are a grafter.
And if you don't get it you are a bum.
So what's the use?

DEMOCRATS SEARCHING FOR AN ISSUE

WE notice a letter in the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press, written by John J. Boobar. He was quite a politician when he lived in Minnesota and now that he has settled in Washington, D. C., where he entered the taxicab business and is now general manager of the Yellow Cab company, he is conversant with affairs, business and political, in the nation's capital.

Here is a section of John's letter: "Everything is moving along here the same as usual. The Democrats are scurrying around with microscopes and thin meshed screens doing their darndest to find an issue for this fall. Up to date they don't seem to have met with any success."

"I tell you this man that we have in the White House is the goods, both from the standpoint of statesmanship and from the standpoint of a shrewd politician. None of the Republicans, Democrats, Irreconcilables, Borahs, Norries, Shipsteads, or any of them, are putting anything over on Cal."

THE St. Cloud Rotary club will go to Grand Forks with nearly 100 per cent membership to attend the convention of the ninth district. They will invite the convention to hold its 1927 session in St. Cloud. The Kiwanis club of St. Cloud has joined the Rotarians in extending the invitation.

A RICH New Yorker, 57, is getting tangled up with various societies in his home town because of his interest in various flappers. His first excuse was to adopt, the second to marry one, but even New York gasped when he assumed a fairy "godfathership" of a whole sorority of pretty flappers.

APPARENTLY the only way to stop accidents at railroad crossings, is to put up signs directing the locomotive engineers to stop, look and listen for automobiles, says the Starbuck Times.

GIRL athletes are now qualifying as weight throwers. The girl champion probably inherits the flat-iron throwing ability of the female side of her ancestors.

MOST people worry because they are either married or not married, says Heinie Mitchell of the Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

WHATEVER interest an old bachelor has in posterity is purely academic, says the Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

The Scrupulous Elspeth

By MARTHA M. WILLIAMS

(Copyright.)

"GO WAY! I'm cross as my legs, or the Macgillivray Tartan!" Elspeth flung at Cowdray from the floor, where indeed her legs were most intricately crossed.

Instantly he backed out of range, and asked: "Wherefore the thushness of the this, O Lady Beautiful? You surely haven't fallen for extra-illustrating."

Elspeth shook her head, saying: "Worse—and more of it! Pure humanity. Yesterday I went through the orphan's ward at St. Michael's—fifty poor things under one—only three picture books to fight over—so ragged, too, they almost tear at a touch."

"Let's make truce," said Cowdray. "Wash the smudges from your face and your temper, and come along of me a matter of three hours. It will be worth fifty picture books to your dear orphans, brandy-spandy new ones. Now—say what?"

"It goes—so do I," from Elspeth, scrambling to her feet.

Long before they came to town she had decided on only a dozen books, as many games, dolls for all the girls, tops and balls for the boys—and glorious small jars of stick candy for all the ward, not to name a fancy box for the head nurse. A sane and solid person, yet her keen eyes dimmed, her voice got a bit husky as she accepted the gifts and said: "All I can do, is—to wish you even half the happiness you have given me today. It's more than ever I've dared pray for—it seemed God had clean forgotten all these little ones."

"We're coming again—if you'll adopt us into the family," Elspeth answered, beaming at Cowdray. He sat statue-still, statue-silent as they whirled away, saying never a word until they were near his own gate.

"If I lived up to my pirate ancestor," he began, "I'd imprison you here—you are all the place lacks of absolute perfection. It's been offered you several times. Am I so little worth while you will not even refuse me?"

"Why—if I had said No—and looked it—you would have stopped coming—and that would have been—dreadful—I have so few diversions," from Elspeth brightly.

Cowdray laughed, answering with a chuckle: "How about the alternative? Yes is, you know, only a letter longer."

She turned, looked him full in the face, as she said: "The society columns—someone, possibly your fiancée, sent me a clipping which said you were here beautifying your ancestral estate, against the coming of your bride, who was abroad, regaining her health after a long illness, and selecting her trousseau—"

"I must see it," from Cowdray, through set teeth.

Elspeth interrupted him, her cheeks flaming: "Can you say to my face: 'No woman has even a moral claim on me?'"

Cowdray flushed darkly. "That depends," he said. "I have neither offered nor promised marriage to any other woman—I have played about more than a bit with two or three. If they chose to think I was serious it was their mistake."

"Of which you were the first cause," from Elspeth sternly. "Go back to them—and choose the one that needs you most."

"I will not. My name is not Quixote!" Cowdray burst out furiously. "You are the only mate I covet—falling you, I will have none."

"Then—take me home, please," Elspeth said, suddenly white-lipped. Safe at her home portal she held out her hand to him, saying, "Good luck to you—and good-by."

"It's good-by—until next time only," Cowdray said.

Cowdray thought the matter over carefully that afternoon. Mrs. Mazetta Nalm had no doubt inspired the paragraph. She had, he recalled, kinfolk in his home neighborhood—through them she had heard of his siege of Elspeth, and acted accordingly.

As he turned into the highway a familiar hall sounded: "Halt, ye scoundrel! Come to tell you joyous news—could wait for your return, but knew by instinct where to find you. Oh, yes, Zetta had put me wise. She's married and henceforth I'm alimony-free. So we're both safe ever after—let's hold lodge of rejoicing."

"Agreed!" from Cowdray. "But first some other body must be let into the secret. She's turned me down, cold on account of Mazetta's supposed prior claim. Come back with me and tell her the news—I assure you she's worth the trouble—simply to look at."

They turned about, they looked, and left—to hold their lodge of joy and liberty, with right good will. Nalm, on the edge of journeying to South Africa, gave Elspeth a kiss in advance, saying with a chuckle: "I dare Cowdray to object—he's kissed my wife often enough to even up for a hundred. But don't you worry over it—can't charge him even with contributory negligence—Mazetta is the sort that lets no man escape."

PIONEER OF CITY CALLED

Hans H. Rosenberg, Resident 47 Years, Died at Age of 65 Years

FAITHFUL CHURCH MEMBER

Was Charter Member, Teacher And Trustee of Bethlehem Lutheran Church

Hans Henry Rosenberg, a resident of Brainerd for the past 47 years and one of the early pioneers of the county died at his home 510 Sixth street South, last evening at the age of 65 years.

Mr. Rosenberg was well known in Brainerd for his long faithful service to the Bethlehem Lutheran church where throughout forty-five years of membership he served as a teacher in the Sunday school and as member of the board of trustees for almost as long. He was a charter member of the church.

Born in Bergen, Norway, on February 20, 1851, he came to Brainerd in March, 1879 where he became employed in the N. P. railway shops working continuously until July 1, 1923 when he was granted a pension. On August 13, 1881, Mr. Rosenberg was married to Miss Olive Olsen, who died on November 27, 1894. On March 28, 1896, he married Miss Elise Heggen, who died August 7, 1909.

Mr. Rosenberg is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Marie Lawrence, Ida O. Rosenberg, of Brainerd; Ellen H. Rosenberg, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Agnes E. Petter, of St. Paul; and two sons, Martin P. and Carl H., of St. Paul. Two sons, Frithjof, and Albert, died some years ago. Four sisters, Mrs. Mathilda Hansen, and Mrs. Sina Hansen, of St. Paul, and two sisters and two brothers, of Bergen, Norway, also survive him.

Mr. Rosenberg had been ill at the N. P. hospital at St. Paul for the past three months, but when it was learned that medical aid could only delay the time for his calling he requested that he be returned to his old home in Brainerd where he could spend the remaining days of his life in the surroundings he loved. He returned to Brainerd five weeks ago.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his home and 2:30 o'clock at the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. J. R. Michaelson, pastor of the church, officiating.

Charles Long Funeral

The funeral of Charles Long, who passed away at his home, 1723 Norwood street, on Tuesday, will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church. The remains may be viewed at the church from 12 o'clock until the time of the funeral.

Entertains Friends

Mrs. Peter Fourre entertained some of her friends yesterday at her home, 410 South Bluff Ave. A delicious luncheon was served.

Lived to Advanced Age

Marion Delorme, a celebrated French woman of the Seventeenth century, lived to the age of one hundred and thirty-seven, according to a popular legend, although soldiers sent to arrest her in 1650, when she was thirty-seven, reported her dead.

FREE T. B. CLINIC

Will be Held at County Nurse Office in Court House, Saturday Morning, April 10

A free tuberculosis clinic will be held on Saturday morning, April 10, from 10 a. m. to 12 noon, in the office of the county nurse, in the court house. Dr. E. L. Strader, of the Deerwood sanatorium, will conduct the clinic.

M. E. Missionary Society

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the Methodist church will meet Friday, April 9th, at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. O. C. Skauge, 201 Kingwood street. Mrs. M. L. Eversz will give the last chapter of "Prayer and Missions." Visitors are very welcome to the meetings.

TWO ORCHESTRAS PLAY AT DANCE

U. C. T. of Brainerd Will Hold Another Big Time Party Saturday Night, April 17

MANY INVITATIONS ISSUED

Hedstrom's and Ragadours to Play, With But Minute's Intermission

The U. C. T. of Brainerd, will hold another of their big time parties Saturday night, April 17, at the Gardner auditorium, but this time they will present to the city something more unique than before, a big dance with two orchestras battling for supremacy.

Hedstrom's Hot Points, who need no introduction to the dance lovers of Brainerd will compete against the Ragadours, a snappy orchestra from Crosby. No prize is to be given to the winning musicians, only the glory accompanying it, for these two orchestras are known throughout the county as keen rivals.

The entertainment committee composed of Messrs. Charles Gustafson, chairman, John A. Hoffbauer, R. W. Sherlund, J. F. Hurley, Robert Elder, and Asher Taylor, have charge of the issuing of the invitations. It is requested by the committee that those attending the party bring their invitations with them as no one will be admitted without one.

Continual dancing is planned from 8:30 o'clock to the midnight hour with one minute intermissions between each dance. This battle of music planned by the U. C. T. to give their Brainerd friends an interesting time is entertainment equal to that furnished in the Twin Cities.

Who will come out victorious in the battle of music can only be decided by those attending who will be the sole judges of the fray. Whoever wins no one is certain, but it is a sure thing that everybody is going to have a good time.

The Ragadours come to the city with a reputation of being a peppy lot with a style all their own.

Both orchestras are capable of producing music that will make even the most aged dance and feel young again, but Saturday night they are going to be even better. Generally speaking, "they're gonna be hot."

W. W. WINTER PASSED AWAY

Resident of Brainerd Since 1882 Died at His Home, 121 Gillis Ave., Early Today

WAS WELL-KNOWN CARPENTER

Leaves Wife, Two Sons, Daughter, Three Brothers, Six Grandchildren to Mourn Him

Warren W. Winter, long a resident of this city, and a well-known carpenter here, died early today at his home at 121 Gillis Ave., N. E.

The deceased was born on May 8, 1854, and in May, 1882, was married to Miss Mary Morris, in Wisconsin. They came to Brainerd that year, and have lived here since. He has followed the carpenter trade all his life.

Mr. Winter was a member of the Modern Samaritans, the carpenters' union, and a charter member of the Firemen's Benefit Association.

Surviving him are his wife, two sons, Arthur J. of Chicago and Claude M. of Brainerd, one daughter, Mrs. Earl Hawley, of Minneapolis, three brothers and six grandchildren.

The remains are at the McNamara funeral service, the funeral arrangements not having been made as yet. Announcement regarding them will be made later.

Bloom-Potvin

The wedding took place yesterday afternoon in the probate court chamber of Miss Margaret Potvin, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Potvin, 1216 E. Pine street, to Erik Victor Bloom, employee in the blacksmith shop of the N. P. railway here.

Judge L. B. Kinder, officiated with Hazel A. Rardin, and Thomas Russell, as witnesses.

STUDENT SUFFERS FROM LACK MEMORY

DOUGLAS ROBINSON WAS FOUND WANDERING IN A DAZE

Rochester, N. Y., April 8.—(UP)—Douglas Robinson, 21 year old son of Assistant Secretary of the Navy T. D. Robinson, who disappeared from Cambridge, Mass., where he was a student at Harvard, last Friday, is in St. Mary's hospital here apparently suffering from loss of memory.

Young Robinson was taken in charge by the police who found him wandering on a down town street in a daze. A lump on his head indicated he had received a sharp blow, physicians who examined him said.

Young Robinson was said by the Harvard authorities to have returned to his classes yesterday, but when his father came from Washington to see him the fact that he had not returned was established.

CONDITION OF BURBANK GRAVE

ANXIOUS WATCH KEPT DURING NIGHT AT BEDSIDE OF SCIENTIST

Santa Rosa, Cal., April 8.—(UP)—An anxious watch was kept during the night at the home where Luther Burbank is fighting to recover from a serious illness. Burbank slept restfully but an agreement of a physicians' consultation was that his condition "was somewhat grave." His advanced age and nervous condition have prevented Burbank from responding to treatment as his physicians had hoped, they said.

ACCIDENTAL GAS POISONING BLAMED FOR DEATH OF TWO

Minneapolis, April 8.—(UP)—Accidental gas poisoning was blamed for the death early today of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dye, whose bodies were found in bed at their apartment here.

Remains of a late lunch were on the table and a gas plate pushed into a closet without being turned off was the source of the deadly fumes.

Dye was 27 and his wife 25. They were married only last May.

TWO WORLD'S SWIMMING RECORDS BROKEN

CINCINNATI CLINCHES THE TEAM HONORS

RADEMACHER CLIPS 2 1-5 SECONDS OFF 220 YARD BREAST STROKE

MISS AGNES GERAGHTY BREAKS WOMEN'S 100 YARD BREAST STROKE

By BERT M. DENBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, April 8. — Featured by the greatest swim ever made over the 220 yard breast stroke route, last night's card in the National A. A. U. indoor swimming championship meet saw two more world records shattered and the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. practically clinch the team honors.

Erich Rademacher, who came over from Germany to enter the meet, covered the 220 yard breast stroke in 2:46, bettering the old record held by Robert Skelton, I. A. C., by the big margin of 2 1-5 seconds.

The German's stroke is perfect and the exhibition he put up last night was the greatest ever seen in local pools. He and Walter Spence of the Brooklyn Y. M. C. A. were off on even terms and were shoulder to shoulder until the last few feet of the race when Rademacher managed to gain a foot lead to win.

The other world's record which fell is the women's 100 yard breast stroke for 60 foot pools. Miss Agnes Geraghty, Women's Swimming Association, New York, swam the distance in 1:31 to clip 1 4-5 seconds off the old record held by Miss I. Gilbert of England. Miss Geraghty swam the distance without competition.

The Chicago Athletic Association won the 200 yard championship relay race by a bare margin.

Anne Borg, of the I. A. C., retained his 220 yard free style championship. Harry Glancy and Walter Laufer, the great Cincinnati swimmers, were second and third.

Cincinnati "Y" now leads with a team total of 13 points and victory is almost certain for the Ohioans. Laufer is certain to win or place in the 100 yard free style and medley swims and the 150 yard back stroke and Glancy should score in the 500 yard, to give the Ohio boys a commanding lead by the time the meet is over.

Johnny Weismuller, the great I. A. C. swimmer, has been forced to withdraw from the meet by orders of his doctor.

FIGHT ON TO DISLodge DILG AS PRESIDENT

LATTER IS THE EXECUTIVE AND FOUNDER OF IZAAK WALTON LEAGUE

SAW IT GROW FROM 100 TO MEMBERSHIP OF OVER 200,000

Chicago, April 8.—(UP)—A fight to dislodge Will H. Dilg, president of the Izaak Walton League and founder of the organization, from the president emeritus of the organization, from the annual convention opening here, according to delegates arriving today.

These delegates charge that Dilg has mismanaged the League despite the fact it has grown to membership of over 200,000 in the four years of its existence.

However, the delegates said, the charges will be kept from the floor if Dilg will accept a position as president emeritus of the organization. If he should decline to do this, the majority of the national committee, headed by Jack R. Cunningham, chairman, is prepared to back another candidate for the presidency of the League; it was said.

In a letter written by League officials, Dilg is charged with saying that "it is his League and he is going to run or ruin it."

It is also charged that Dilg suggested that widely known authors withdraw their manuscripts from "Outdoor America," the League's magazine.

Dilg founded the league four years ago with a membership of 100 in Chicago. Now the league boasts something like 200,000 members and 3,000 chapters. Its aim is to preserve outdoor life and to keep the nation's inland streams free from pollution.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN YANKEES

TRAINING SEASON WORKS WONDERS IN THE TEAM

FIRST LOOKED LIKE GRAMMAR SCHOOL SQUAD ON A PICNIC

NOW CONSIDERED DANGEROUS CONTENDER FOR THE PENNANT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, April 8. — Baseball

with its uncertain ways, may produce any kind of surprise during the regular season, but it can hardly equal what the training season produced in the New York Yankees. Not so many weeks ago in their first week in their training camp, the former American League champions looked like a grammar school squad on a picnic.

But in a few weeks the Yankees became not only a ball club but a dangerous contender for the American League pennant.

The estimate of the strength of the Yankees is not based entirely upon the form shown in the exhibition series with the Brooklyn Robins, but the heartless way in which they have murdered high class pitching means something.

For the first time Babe Ruth joined the club, Miller Huggins has a team that is not built around Babe Ruth. The Babe, trying desperately for a comeback, is only one of the ball players now and even if he fails to come through, the team will not suffer.

There are many smart baseball men, friendly toward Ruth, who believe he is reaching the end of his string. He is in better physical shape than he was last year, but the ball players who have been watching him, are of the opinion that he has lost his eye.

Even if he does not hit a flock of home runs, the Babe will be a valuable ballplayer, but he hasn't his job cinched with Paschal and Culllop on the bench waiting to step in.

Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn club, expressed the opinion recently that the Yankees were the hardest hitting ball club that was ever organized and that the pitching was much above the ordinary.

WILL OF LEON E. LUM NAMES BRAINERD FOLK

Dispatch Receives Exact Copy of Will as Filed in Duluth Probate Court

CITY GETS $2,000 FOR PARK

15 Brainerd People Get $1,000 Bequest Each, Church and Hospital Get $1,000 Each

The will of the late Leon E. Lum, filed in the probate court of St. Louis county, names a number of Brainerd people as recipients of bequests. The Brainerd Dispatch has received an exact copy of the last will and testament of Mr. Lum, and it is reproduced below.

Fifteen Brainerd residents are named to receive $1,000 each. The First Congregational church of Brainerd and the Protestant Churches hospital are each left $1,000, while the city of Brainerd gets $2,000 for the improvement of Lum park. The park itself was a former donation of Mr. Lum to the city. The donor also makes a statement in the will expressing his appreciation for the work already done on the park by the park board.

The Crow Wing Historical society, at present merely an association, is to get $500 if it is incorporated within three years. The Nisswa community, where Mr. Lum had his summer residence, gets $3,000 towards the erection of a community church.

The bulk of the property is left to the sister and brothers of the deceased, with the First National bank of Duluth named as executor of the will.

Of peculiar interest is the leaving to the Crow Wing Historical society a book case desk which was made by John Tweedalo and others at the Northern Pacific shops in Brainerd when coach work was done here, many years ago, prior to the removal of the coach shops to the Como shops in St. Paul.

The will in full is as follows:

Last Will and Testament

I, Leon E. Lum of Duluth and State of Minnesota, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following:

First, I direct my Executor, hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Second, I give, devise and bequeath to my sister and brothers living at my death my jewelry, house, furniture, automobiles and personal effects.

Third, I give, devise and bequeath to The First National Bank of Duluth, Minn., the remainder of my property, real and personal. In trust, however, to be by said bank invested in first mortgages, ground leases and safe bonds and paid and distributed as follows:

1. $300 per year payable quarterly to Lucy Roberge of Minneapolis, Georgia Norris of Anoka and Alma Eades of Nisswa, Minn., during their lives. At the death of Georgia Norris and Alma Eades $250 per year for four years shall be paid to their daughters, if living.

2. $1,000 each to Maud Heustis, Margaret Atherton, Zella Burgoyne, Mary Small, Winifred V. Small, Eloise Stout, Winifred Albright, Nell Fie Wieland, Edna Hoffman, Corna Stickney, Lucy Wieland, Harriet Ingersoll, Mabel Hall, Kittie Tinkelpaugh and Geraldine Richards of Brainerd, Minn., and Francis Marks of Minneapolis, Myrne Shepard of St. Joseph, Cal., Jessie Seelye, Jr., of Seattle, Wash., and my cousins Joseph Clark, Treat Curial, Marie Menefee and the sons and daughters of Frank W. Thorndike, all if living at my death. To Irma C. Hartley of Brainerd.

3. $1,000 to The Children's Home Society of Duluth of which my sister-in-law, Charlotte P. Lum, was formerly an officer, as a memorial to her and to the Bethel Rescue Home of Duluth and to the First Congregational church of Brainerd and to the Protestant Church's Hospital in Brainerd if it be running. $2,000 to the City of Brainerd for improvement of Lum Park and I wish to express my appreciation of what the Park Board has done.

$500 to the Crow Wing County Historical Society (an association only at present) if it be incorporated within three years.

$3,000 toward the erection, in co-operation with the people in the vicinity, of a Community Church at Nisswa, Minn., the matter of title and giving being left largely to the best judgment of said trustee.

$1,000 to an old ladies' home in Duluth if one shall be built within five years from my death, this also being left to my trustee's judgment.

4. To the Crow Wing County Historical Society my book case which was made by John Tweedalo and others at the Northern Pacific Shops when they did coach work.

5. To Alma Eades of Nisswa, if living at my death, the house and grounds in Nisswa where she now lives, the ground to extend east to within 20 feet of the railroad right of way (such 20 feet being dedicated to the public for a cartway) and measured to make one acre.

5. The remainder of my estate shall be held for ten years from my death and then distributed in equal shares to my sister and brothers then living.

The income in the meantime shall be distributed quarterly yearly to the same persons last mentioned in the same shares. The notes due me annually from the Oliver Iron Co. shall be considered income although they are really principal.

6. As the annuities lapse the funds necessary to support them go into the general fund.

All legal business in connection with the probate and administration of my estate shall, so far as reasonably possible be given to my brother Burt if living.

I hereby nominate and appoint The First National Bank of Duluth, a National Banking Association, located at Duluth, Minnesota, the Executor of this my Will, with full power to said Executor to sell, contract and convey or lease any real and personal estate of which I may die seized, and to do each and every act and thing necessary or proper fully to carry out the provisions of this my Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this Will, on this 16th day of December, 1925.

Leon E. Lum.

THIS INSTRUMENT was, on the date hereof, signed, published and declared by the said Leon E. Lum to be his Last Will and Testament, in our presence who, at his request have signed our names thereto as witnesses, in his presence and in the presence of each other.

H. L. Hartley, residing at Duluth, W. E. McLeod, residing at Duluth, Filed March 30th, 1926.

Lila Chevette,

Deputy Clerk of Probate.

The petition for probate of will gives the value of the property as follows: personal property in excess of $25,000.00; real estate in excess of $25,000.00.

The following is a list of the legatees as given in the petition:

27 SEEK FINAL PAPERS IN MAY

Seven Cases Continued, Twenty Are New, to Appear Before Judge McClenahan

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5, AT 2 P. M.

R. K. Doe, Head Naturalization Examiner, Will Hear Applicants For Citizenship

Twenty-seven persons in Crow Wing county are seeking their second papers of citizenship, and will appear before Judge W. S. McClenahan in district court on Wednesday afternoon, May 5, at 2 p. m.

Of the number seeking their papers, seven are continued cases from the last term of court, while twenty are new cases. R. K. Doe, head naturalization examiner for this region, will examine the applicants.

Many of those seeking their papers at this time are students in the night school courses of citizenship, and will receive their diplomas from the school on Tuesday evening, April 13, at the auditorium of the high school. They are to be examined on Monday night, April 12, by Supt. of Schools W. C. Cobb, and Clerk of Court W. A. M. Johnstone, who have been delegated by Mr. Doe to conduct these examinations.

On Tuesday evening, April 13, a program will be presented, to which all interested are invited. The program will start at 8 p. m.

Stylish Coats and Dresses

Coming Down the Lane of Fashion Garbed in Beautiful New SPRING GARMENTS

Smart Coats

The time to buy your new spring coat is right now. The promise of warmer weather makes one want to lay aside the heavier one and blossom out in a new spring one. Many new ones came in this week so that the stock of good looking coats is at its very best. Stylish garments at moderate prices.

$18.50, $25.00, $35.00 up to $65.00

Stunning Dresses

There are really so many attractive and lovely dresses to show you this week that we scarcely know where to commence to describe them—we would so much rather show them to you. Gorgeous printed silks, lovely soft crepes, beautiful georgette crepes, in plain treatment or in combination with printed crepes.

$16.75, $21.75, $29.75 to $49.75

Hand Bags

Many new shapes in the hand bags this spring makes one long for a new one. It may be one of the late pouch shapes, or a flat bag, or perhaps a beautifully beaded one.

$1.00 to $15.00

Gloves

So necessary to complete one's costume, whether it be a pair of French kid or sheer silk ones, or a little heavier chamousette pair. All are popular.

FOREST WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

President Coolidge Proclaims Period From April 18 to 24

E. H. RHODES TO SPEAK

Rural Schools Will Observe Week by Holding Educational Forest Programs

While no program has been outlined definitely as yet for Brainerd in the keeping of Forest Week, a week set by President Coolidge for April 18 to 24, in which the people of the United States will be told of the need of the preservation of the forest by fire protection, the rural schools will observe the week by holding educational forest programs in each school, according to E. H. Rhodes, state forest ranger here who will address the meetings.

Statistics show that at the present time, the United States uses about two-fifths of the total world consumption of timber, about one-half of the world's saw log material and one-third of all fire wood material. The per capita consumption of forest products is 300 board feet per year. Records also show that forest fires in the United States, windfalls, insects, and disease, take a toll of the forest every year of nearly two and one-half billion cubic feet, and that much of this loss is preventable.

Forestry programs consisting of addresses on the need of forest protection will be given in all the rural schools. The Agricultural Extension Division University Farm, St. Paul, have announced the following topics for addresses and recitations to be given at the school meetings: "Reasons Why We Should Plant Trees," "The Burned Tree," "The Careless Smoker," "The Lumber Situation of America Today."

"The Forest Pledgers," "The Proposed Forestry Amendment," "Why We Plant a Permanent Christmas Tree," "What Do We Plant When We Plant a Tree," and "Trees."

FAST STITCHERS GROUP

Taking up Clothing Project Met at Home of Mrs. George Hess

The "Fast Stitchers" group taking up the Clothing Project I course given by the Home Demonstration Department of the Agricultural College Extension Service met at the home of Mrs. George Hess, 619 Pine street on Wednesday afternoon.

Uses of sewing machine attachments, short cuts without the use of the attachments, bound and welt pocket and bound buttonhole were taken up.

The next meeting of the group will be at Mrs. I. H. Eastons, 418 6th street South on April 21.

NEAR FLOOD CONDITIONS IN TWO STATES

SECTIONS OF ILLINOIS AND INDIANA ARE SUBMERGED

WEATHER BUREAU FORECASTS "NO FLOOD DANGER"

Chicago, April 8.—(UP)—Near flood conditions prevailed over the lowland sections of Illinois and Indiana today although the weather bureau forecast there was "no flood danger."

An overnight rain in Indiana sent the Wabash and Maumee rivers and other streams up close to the flood stage, while in Illinois state highway patrolmen were patrolling the districts to keep a watch on any possible bridge washouts. Clear weather is promised for Illinois which may mean the end of the torrential waters.

Terre Haute, Fort Wayne and other Indiana cities were confronted with the task of caring for many families from the lowlands who were forced to flee from their homes.

San Francisco, April 8.—California today started to shake off the bulldog grip of storms.

Rains and gales reached their peak last night. The California coast along its entire length was lashed furiously by winds which carried rain in an almost unceasing onslaught against shipping.

Coastwise steamers battled for every inch of water. Schedules were disrupted though no serious wrecks had been reported up to this morning.

A tug out of San Francisco, No. 2 of the International Fishery Company, was reported aground off Point Keyes. Late reports said that Captain Balster and his crew of two men had not been rescued from the boat and that they were in considerable peril.

Sense of Smell Changes

It is a fact little realized that the sense of smell can be educated to detect odors that the untrained nose would never pick up or suspect. The wine merchants and distillers of perfumes as well as the tobacco dealers very frequently have highly developed senses of smell.

Idea Brought Wealth

The man who discovered that a candle, if tapered at the end, would stick firmly into its socket, patented the idea, and afterward founded the largest candle factory in the world.

No Stability Without Law

To make an empire durable the magistrates must obey the laws, and the people are magistrates.—Solon.

MARKET IS UNINTERESTING

New York, April 8.—(UP)—Today's market was the least interesting Wall street has known in a great many months. Price movements of the stocks were confined to a narrow range, displaying no discernible trend. Sagging tendencies at various stages of the day in General Electric, Dupont and other industrial leaders were offset by special strength in Allied Chemical and C. & O.

The tide of battle appeared to be turning definitely in behalf of the bears, but the selling movements were checked before any material depression occurred in the pivotal stocks.

Stocks disturbed by the movement including Union Oil of California and Central Leather had support at certain points, though they failed to gain aggressively.

The market closed lower.

Spruce Gum Out of Favor

Years ago the business of gathering spruce gum in the forests of Maine was highly developed and gave employment to many. Today it languishes, only one man is actively engaged in having it gathered and only a dozen Indians tramp through the woods to bring in the stores.

STRANGE YANKEE DIED IN LONDON

KEPT STEAM UP IN YACHT, LIVED ABOARD, BUT NEVER SAILED ANYWHERE

London, April 8.—(UP)—McEvers Bayard Brown, an American and one of the strangest men ever to desert the new world for the old, died today at Colchester.

Brown had lived for years on his yacht, the Valfreyia, where he died today, and during the last 10 or 12 years she has been at anchor off Colchester, but always with steam up in the event the millionaire recluse, as he was called by the London newspapers, should suddenly decide to leave.

While the yachts impounded steam for her idle engines, Brown remained aboard the craft, meditating the journeys that were rarely made.

Brown was 74 years of age and a native of California. He left New York years ago in the midst of social and business success and ever afterward was obstinately silent the United States was mentioned, although the Valfreyia flew the Stars and Stripes.

Rivers Hamper Railroads

With the exception of a few feeder lines, the railroads of Burma run north and south. The large rivers of the country, which flow in the same direction, assume immense proportions during the rainy season, and are the chief obstacle to the construction of east and west railways.

Simple Korean Clothing

In Korea, some clothes are merely pasted together instead of being sewed, it is said. They are pulled apart when wash day comes around, and are pasted together again when they are dry.

YOU POOR KID, WHY ARE YOU SO SKINNY?

Don't your mother know that Cod Liver Oil will put pounds of good flesh on your bones in just a few weeks?

Tell her every druggist has it in sugar-coated tablet form now so that you won't have to take the nasty, fishy-tasting oil that is apt to upset your delicate stomach.

Tell her that McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are chock full of vitalizing vitamins and are the greatest flesh producers and health builders she can find.

One sickly thin kid, age 9, gained 12 pounds in 7 months.

She must ask H. P. Dunn, Johnson's Pharmacy or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets—60 cents—as pleasant to take as candy—and if at the end of 30 days she isn't glad she bought them your druggist is authorized to return her money.

"Me and the boy friend"

You know them, bless their hearts. A pair of youngsters, really, in spite of their self-reliant air and their fast-vanishing teens. The girl—slim, clear-eyed, merry; the boy—flippant, a bit arrogant, full of secret, earnest plans for success.

They like each other. They go to the movies together, dance, quarrel a bit. They don't believe in early marriages. But her eyes shine when she speaks of him. "Me and the boy friend."

One of these days, suddenly, they'll be grown up. Man and wife, those fearless youngsters. A home to plan, life to face. A budget, a savings account, economies.

They'll make mistakes, but they'll learn quickly. She'll begin to be canny in the spending of money—to question prices and values. She'll begin to read about the things she plans to buy, to find out all she can about them. She'll become a regular reader of advertisements.

They'll help her to become the capable, wise housewife she wants so much to be. They'll tell her what clothes are best and what prices to pay for them. They'll tell her about the foods to buy, the electric appliances, the linoleums and draperies. They'll help her, as the advertisements in this newspaper can help you.

And she'll meet her responsibilities and fulfill her duties easily and well. She won't become a tired, flustered, inefficient drudge. Because her home will be modern, attractive, well-run, she'll keep young—through the speedy years she'll retain much of that shining-eyed, merry freshness. She and the "boy friend."

Advertisements are wise counselors for housewives, young and old
